PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

NC STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT-SPRING 2021

Greetings,

The NC Student Success Center is happy to announce an excellent line up of professional development opportunities for all faculty and staff at our 58 colleges. We have presenters from a variety of our colleges along with national experts to round out our offerings. Please share this information widely at your college.

Register now for these exciting and informative workshops! You will be sent the Zoom links after registering for the workshops. A list by date is also attached for your convenience.

Additionally, remember to check out the Student Success Center Moodle site, ncssc-pd.org. We currently offer a six-module onboarding course called Start Right Now that has gotten rave reviews. It includes modules on Who We Are, What We Do, Who We Serve, Advising and Financial Aid, Best Practices for Teaching and Learning, and Promoting Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. We will be launching six additional courses in January, so check back then. All courses are free and available to all colleges, faculty, and staff on demand.

Thank you,

INSTRUCTIONAL COACHING IS EVOLVING!

As we continue to navigate these uncertain times, we certainly want to maintain our level of efficacy in the world of education. To better assist our FTCC faculty in maintaining consistent quality instruction, we are introducing SIBME, a new tool to aid the Center of Excellence in Faculty and Instructional Development. This video based tool will be instrumental in providing better observations with real time feedback, specific training, and collaboration amongst colleagues.

Sibme is a fully integrated web and mobile platform focused on improving teaching and learning in the classroom. Sibme can be used to build online learning communities of teachers, share best practices, watch one another teach from anywhere, and provide job-embedded feedback. The mobile apps make it easy to capture video from any device, and watch video anytime, anywhere. The robust platform allows ease of communication, provides targeted feedback, and shares resources in a cloud-based solution.

Sibme makes on-demand professional development, instructional coaching, and teacher collaboration possible by giving teachers and schools the power to record and share video of their classrooms instantly, provide targeted feedback through time-stamped comments and customized framework features, and collaborate in a secure environment to ensure student artifacts and classroom videos are only visible to people who need access. Additionally, a robust analytics dashboard and customized implementation support make it easy to build out networks of professional learning at scale in large districts and institutions.

NEW TEACHING AND LEARNING ONLINE COURSES!

Greetings!

The NC Student Success Center (NC SSC) is excited to announce the launch of six new teaching and learning online courses. The course topics and objectives were selected based on faculty surveys and focus groups facilitated by the Belk Center for Community College Leadership and Research at NC State. NC community colleges were then asked to nominate faculty and staff to develop the courses. The nominated faculty worked with our instructional designer to create robust online courses that meet the objectives identified in our focus groups. The courses are now available through the NC SSC Moodle site for free use by all college personnel.

Go to ncssc-pd.org to review the course offerings (descriptions below). If it is your first time at our site, watch the "First Time Here?" video to learn how to set up your account. If you already have an account, sign in and start exploring.

We look forward to hearing your feedback on the courses. Please share the courses with anyone you feel may benefit. For more information or help, please contact Marsi Franceschini, franceschinim_tmp@nccommunitycolleges.edu.

New Courses Available Now

Teaching High School Students – Learn about dual enrollment and how it impacts colleges and instruction. It is sometimes clear when a high school student is in a course but often it is not. Learn how to be prepared for the possibility that high school students are part of your class.

Growth Mindset – What is growth mindset and why is it important? RISE courses have explicitly included growth mindset, but it should be part of every community college course. Additionally, it is important for faculty to model growth mindset. Learn about the theory and application of this practice.

Backward Course Design – One way to improve student outcomes is to teach with the end in mind. Learn how to design your course so that students learn what they need to learn to be successful. Backward course design is a way of looking at your course that will help you make your instruction even more effective.

Universal Design for Learning – Designing instruction that meets the needs of all learners is an important student success strategy. Hear about the history of universal design and how to apply the theory to your teaching.

Equity in the Classroom – This course provides an in depth look at equity and gives concrete ideas to implement that address equity in your practice. Learn what equity is, why it is important, and how to make progress in closing the equity gap at your college.

Developing Online Courses – Online courses are more common today than ever. Many faculty have had to quickly transition to teaching online in the pandemic. This course provides resources and ideas to improve your online teaching with concrete strategies.

Other Courses Available

Start Right Now – This course is an onboarding course for community college faculty and staff. The module topics are: Who We Are, What We Do, Who We Serve, Advising and Financial Aid, Best Practices for Teaching and Learning, and Promoting Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

Introduction to Equity – This is the Promoting Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion module from the Start Right Now course. This module is open to guest access and so does not require participants to create an account on the Moodle site.

CCRG Professional Development – In support of our Career and College Ready Graduates project, this course contains information and resources to support the rollout of CCRG courses in high schools across the state.

We certainly hope you find these courses helpful and we look forward to hearing from you about them.

Thank you,
