

COLLEGE CREDIT FOR Military Training

In partnership with the American Council on Education and the Council for Adult & Experiential Learning, FTCC has created a series of degree plans that maximize your military experience and shorten the time required to earn an associate degree.

Branch + Occupational Specialty
+ Military Training
= College Credits Already Earned

Based on your branch of service, occupational specialty, and your skill level, it is possible that you have earned up to 48 college credits that can be applied to an associate degree.

Instructional Leadership

FTCC in collaboration with the leadership of a NCO Academy has created a certificate that not only recognizes the skills learned by military leaders in the Instructors Training Course (ITC) but also helps to sharpen and strengthen these skills with advanced learning in Effective Teacher Training and Educational Technology.

Most E6 and above who have completed ITC will only need to take two FTCC Courses to qualify for the certificate.

The following courses and learning are included in this certificate:

BUS 234 Training and Development

(E6 and above get credit for ALC)

This course covers developing, conducting, and evaluating employee training with attention to adult learning principles. Emphasis is placed on conducting a needs assessment, using various instructional approaches, designing the learning environment, and locating learning resources. Upon completion, students should be able to design, conduct, and evaluate a training program.

EDU 163 Classroom Management & Instruction

(E6 and above get credit for ITC Certification)

This course covers management and instructional techniques with school-age populations. Topics include classroom management and organization, teaching strategies, individual student differences and learning styles, and developmentally appropriate classroom guidance techniques. Upon completion, students should be able to utilize developmentally appropriate behavior management and instructional strategies that enhance the teaching/learning process and promote students' academic success.

EDU 271 Educational Technology

(Most Students Will Take)

This course introduces the use of technology to enhance teaching and learning in all educational settings. Topics include technology concepts, instructional strategies, materials and adaptive technology, facilitation of assessment/evaluation, and ethical issues surrounding the use of technology.

EDU 275 Effective Teacher Training

(Most Students Will Take)

This course provides specialized training using an experienced-based approach to learning. Topics include instructional preparation and presentation, student interaction, time management, learning expectations, evaluation, and curriculum principles and planning. Upon completion, students should be able to prepare and present a six-step lesson plan and demonstrate ways to improve students' time-on-task.

COM 120 Introduction Interpersonal Com

This course introduces the practices and principles of interpersonal communication in both dyadic and group settings. Emphasis is placed on the communication process, perception, listening, self-disclosure, speech apprehension, ethics, nonverbal communication, conflict, power, and dysfunctional communication relationships. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate interpersonal communication skills, apply basic principles of group discussion, and manage conflict in interpersonal communication situations.

OR

COM 231 Public Speaking

(E6 and above get credit for ITC Certification)

This course provides instruction and experience in preparation and delivery of speeches within a public setting and group discussion. Emphasis is placed on research, preparation, delivery, and evaluation of informative, persuasive, and special occasion public speaking. Upon completion, students should be able to prepare and deliver well-organized speeches and participate in group discussion with appropriate audiovisual support.
