

COLLEGE CREDIT FOR Military Training

In partnership with the American Council on Education and the Council for Adult & Experiential Learning, FTCC has created a series of degree plans that maximize your military experience and shorten the time required to earn an associate degree.

Branch + Occupational Specialty
+ Military Training
= College Credits Already Earned

Based on your branch of service, occupational specialty, and your skill level, it is possible that you have earned up to 48 college credits that can be applied to an associate degree.

JCSE (Joint Communications Support Elements)

Through the partnership with the Joint Communications Support Element (JCSE) all graduates of the Joint Operations Communication School earn 34 credit hours towards an Associates in General Education from FTCC. Additional credits will be awarded based on additional military training. Most qualified JCSE Service members earn a maximum transfer credit of 48 credit hours.

See how many credits you earned:

Explore the Military and Veterans section on FTCC's website for more information. Go to the credit search tool for a customized list of earned credits based on your experience.

The following classes must be completed to be awarded the Associates in General Education:

ENG 111	Writing Inquiry - 3 credit hrs.
ENG 112	Writing/Research in the Disc - 3 credit hrs.
MAT 143	Quantitative Literacy or higher level Math - 3 credit hrs.
COM 120	Interpersonal Communication - 3 credit hrs.
ACA 122	College Transfer Success
Elective	3 credit hrs.

Transfer credit for these courses will be accepted upon approval from FTCC. Sixteen (16) credit hours or 25% of the degree must be completed through FTCC on site or online in order to meet our Residency Requirement. Students who receive transfer credit for any of the above courses may replace those credits with approved Electives.
