PRIVATE SECTOR ADVISORY

Navigating the Road to Recovery – Update

- The deadline for North Carolinians who are eligible to participate in North Carolina’s Sheltering and Temporary Essential Power (STEP) program has been extended to Feb. 1.
- The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) announced that its Disaster Loan Outreach Centers located in Jacksonville and New Bern North Carolina will cease operations at 5 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 4. That will also be SBA representatives’ last day at the state Housing Recovery Center in Wilmington.

Unmet Needs

FEMA works closely with state, federal, faith-based and voluntary agency partners. Survivors who do not qualify for FEMA disaster assistance may call 2-1-1, the statewide information and referral service for basic unmet needs—such as food or cleaning supplies and help to pay utility bills and child-care expenses.

Disaster Tax Relief

Survivors of Hurricane Florence may qualify for tax relief from the Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers may be eligible for deadline extensions to file returns or pay taxes, and may be able to claim qualified disaster losses. The IRS may waive fees and expedite requests from survivors. To download forms and publications, go to IRS or call 800-829-3676. For general tax questions, call 800-829-1040.

Insurance Hotline

If you need help with your insurance claim or settlements, call the North Carolina Department of Insurance at 855-408-1212. For more information, go to NC Hurricane Claims.

Disaster Distress Helpline

If you’re feeling stressed or overwhelmed by Florence, call the Disaster Distress Helpline at 800-985-5990 any time day or night to speak with a trained crisis counselor. Or text TalkWithUs to 66746. For Spanish, text Hablanos to 66746. Additional information is available online at Substance Abuse and Mental Health Disaster Distress Helpline

Disaster Fraud Hotline

If you suspect fraud, waste, abuse or mismanagement of disaster relief operations, call the Disaster Fraud Hotline at 866-720-5721. (Calls can be made anonymously and confidentially.)

SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans

The deadline to return SBA economic injury disaster loan applications is June 14, 2019.
