VI-3.3 Affirmative Action Procedures

VI-3.3.1 Recruitment, Advertising, and Selection

To fulfill its role as an equal opportunity institution, FTCC takes affirmative action to ensure that qualified members of minority groups and females are afforded opportunities on an equal basis with all other applicants. The recruitment and advertising effort aimed at locating and soliciting minority and female applicants will include the following:

- (1) Advertising employment opportunities in minority newspapers.
- (2) Sending employment opportunities to colleges and universities with predominately minority and female enrollment, as well as usual recruitment sources.
- (3) Advertising employment opportunities in trade journals, if appropriate for job.

FAYETTEVILLE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

- (4) Notifying the NC Department of Commerce of job vacancies for posting with the NCWorks Centers across the State of NC.
- (5) Linking employment opportunities to NCCCS employment websites.
- (6) Emailing employment opportunities campus wide.
- (7) Posting employment opportunities on the FTCC website.

Fayetteville Technical Community College recruits employees in all areas (administrative, staff, instructional and service) on the basis of qualifications and individual ability without regard to race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age, or political affiliation except where gender or age are bona fide occupational qualifications or limitations. Emphasis will be placed on attracting applicants who will contribute to maintaining the standard of excellence to which this College is committed.

Recruiting sources will be analyzed annually by the Vice President for HR/IE to evaluate responses from such sources and the need for expansion. Liaison will be maintained with colleges and agencies having or representing a concentration of minorities and women with a goal of increasing the number of qualified applicants from such sources.

All requests for advertisements of position vacancies will be forwarded to the Vice President for HR/IE for review and action.

The phrase "An Equal Opportunity Employer" will be reflected on all position vacancy announcements. These will include publications, journals, institutions and other agencies having access or appeal to minority and women applicants.

Equal Employment Opportunity policies and the Affirmative Action Plan of this College will receive wide dissemination both within and outside of the College. Internal measures will include: informing new employees of College policy during their orientation and placing the Equal Opportunity Employer phrase on all College mailings. External dissemination will include: providing statements of policy to recruitment sources, prospective employees, contractors, and the news media; providing copies of College plans and programs to appropriate governmental and other agencies having a requirement for knowledge of their content; and equally portraying minority and female employees and students and their accomplishments in public information releases, advertisements, catalogs and other appropriate publications to reflect the diversity of the College.

The College President retains authority to occasionally approve upward mobility of qualified personnel within the College in lieu of advertising the position.

Except in cases of occasional upward mobility personally approved by the President, Fayetteville Technical Community College will link all position vacancy announcements to the North Carolina Community College System Office employment website. Vacancies are registered with the State Department of Commerce NCWorks Centers and appropriate professional associations and institutions. News media, to include local minority oriented media, and professional journals are also used to advertise position openings.

The hiring manager concerned retains the authority and responsibility for the in-depth candidate application review, interview and final selection recommendation through administrative/supervisory channels to the President. No offer can be extended to the recommended candidate until the President approves the hiring recommendation.

When an employee selection has been made by the interview panel, the selecting hiring manager submits the recommendation for employment through their supervisory chair, to the appropriate Senior Vice President or Vice President. The Vice President will forward the hiring packet to the Vice President for HR/IE for review and approval. The hiring packet is then forwarded to the Senior Vice President of Business & Finance for review for budget consideration. The Senior Vice President of Business & Finance will forward the hiring packet to the President for final approval.

VI-3.3.2 Applicant Selective Service Registration Status

Part 19 A, Section 1, Chapter 143 B of the North Carolina General Statutes requires that persons subject to Selective Service Registration must register to be eligible for State or Local employment or receipt of public educational assistance.

VI-3.3.3 Special Recruiting Activities

Vacancy announcements will include the position title, job duties, qualification and deadline for receipt of applications along with the appropriate instructions for submitting an application via the electronic applicant tracking system.

The Vice President for HR/IE verifies that all selection actions are in compliance with established procedures and forwards the results to the President for final approval. Persons to fill non-contract positions may be selected by the appropriate department or office head subject to approval by the President. Those selected for faculty positions will be interviewed by the Senior Vice President for Academic and Student Services or designee. The Senior Vice President for Academic and Student Services will recommend contract provisions to the President for final approval. The President will also be the final approving authority for selection of individuals to fill non-instructional contract positions. As an exception, the VP for HR/IE has been delegated approval authority for hiring recommendations of part-time staff positions on behalf of the President.

If there are no applicants meeting the desired qualification levels, or if those initially interviewed are deemed not qualified, the Vice President for HR/IE may initiate a request for re-advertisement of the position vacancy and defer the interview selection process. Every effort will be made to afford the opportunity for broadening the base of prospective employees consistent with the maintenance of the College's standard of excellence in all areas.

VI-3.3.4 Application Forms

Fayetteville Technical Community College accepts applications via the College's electronic application system powered by PeopleAdmin®. Applications for employment are maintained for a period of 24 months longer if those applications are the subject of a complaint or lawsuit. Tests may be given to prospective employees or employees seeking advancement or transfer for the purpose of providing an aptitude or ability indicator to assist in the selection process. Tests results will be retained for two years. Tests must also meet all validity and reliability measures to comply with federal and state law and therefore must be approved, prior to use, by the VP for HR/IE.

VI-3.3.5 Promotion, Advancement, and Transfer

A primary element of the College's Affirmative Action Program is that of providing the opportunity to qualified employees to apply for promotion, advancement or transfer to more responsible and remunerative positions. Where vacancies occur that afford such opportunities, they will be filled on the basis of merit without regard to race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age or political affiliation.

Except in limited cases of upward mobility approved by the President, position openings will continue to be made known on a College-wide basis so that any qualified employee may apply. Those employee applicants who have the requisite experience, training, aptitude, record of performance, developmental potential, and personal qualities will receive priority consideration. There may be a need, however, to broaden the field of applicants, in which case the position will be advertised on the open market with all qualified applicants receiving equal consideration. Candidates will be judged on the basis of individual ability, qualifications, and the needs of the College without regard to any of the factors cited above.

Transfers between departments or activities within the College will be handled in the same manner as promotions and advancements. However, an exception is the lateral, non-advancement transfer made as a result of changes in position authorizations. This involves a simple individual relocation without reference to recruitment or advertisement action.

A report of all promotion, advancement and transfer actions will be electronically created as they occur within the PeopleAdmin System. Form E-3 must be completed with a memo attached stating the reason of any new position title and sent through the appropriate supervisory chain to the VP for HR/IE prior to advertising the position.

VI-3.3.6 Compensation and Benefits

All employees of Fayetteville Technical Community College receive compensation and benefits in accordance with the positions they occupy, their qualifications, and their term of service without regard to race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age or political affiliation. When supplements are authorized, they will also be provided on the basis of qualifications without regard to the above factors. No employee has an expectation of continued employment beyond the term specified in their employment contract. The President retains, for himself or herself, the right to decide whether to issue or not issue additional contracts covering periods after the expiration of any FTCC employee's contract. The employee's race, color, national origin, religion, sex/gender, age, disability, and for political affiliation will not be a part of such consideration.

VI-5 DISCIPLINE AND INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

The maintenance of a standard of excellence by Fayetteville Technical Community College is primarily attributable to the ability, dedication, and productivity of all its employees. This includes being at work at designated times to prevent a loss of productivity and support to students, visitors, and other College employees.

VI-5.1 Absenteeism and Tardiness

It is an expectation of all employees that they will take necessary precautions to prevent absenteeism and tardiness. A lapse in either attendance or punctuality presents a hardship to other employees, and as such, absenteeism and/or tardiness may be one of the performance attributes discussed on the annual performance appraisal. As a condition of employment, all employees are expected to be at their work site prepared to work at the scheduled time unless excused in advance by their supervisor. An employee is considered absent if he or she is not present for work as scheduled, regardless of cause. Additionally, unexcused absenteeism and habitual tardiness may subject the employee to disciplinary action. Unexcused absenteeism is defined as failure to report for work without prior approval of the supervisor. Tardiness is defined as arriving late for work or returning late from breaks/meals, or early departure from work without prior supervisory approval. In rare instances when employees cannot avoid being late for work or are unable to work as scheduled, they are required to make contact with their supervisor (or their supervisor's supervisor) prior to the beginning of their scheduled shift. Habitual failure to make contact with the supervisor (or supervisor's supervisor) when absent or late may result in disciplinary action.

VI-5.2 Disciplinary and/or Corrective Action

Should any employee either fail to measure up to the demands and/or essential duties of his or her job, not perform that job in a satisfactory manner, violate the policies or procedures of the College, or engage in conduct unbecoming an employee of FTCC, corrective action must be taken to preclude adverse impact on the College's standards and its service obligations. Where such action may be necessary, it will be undertaken without regard to race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age or political affiliation. Note: If the misconduct is a Title IX related allegation, the procedures in paragraph V-9 must be used.

Disciplinary or corrective action may include informal counseling, verbal or written admonitions, performance improvement plans, probation, suspension with or without pay, or termination of service, dependent upon the nature and seriousness of the employee's actions or inactions. Personal and private counseling of an employee on his or her job performance, either as a routine matter or as a corrective measure, is a normal function and responsibility of the employee's immediate supervisor. Supervisors are expected to document, in writing, the major points discussed during the performance counseling discussions and retain a copy of the documentation. If a Performance Improvement Plan (P-24) is used, supervisors must forward the original copy to HR for inclusion in the personnel file and retain a copy in the department files. When an employee's actions warrant, he or she may be admonished, either verbally or in writing, by the immediate supervisor. Written admonitions must be approved (initialed) by the appropriate Senior Vice President or Vice President prior to inclusion in the employee's personnel record. For serious violations of College policy, or for job performance failures, or for other reasons defined in College policies, a supervisor may recommend that an employee be placed on probation, suspended or terminated. This recommendation, with supporting documentation such as previous performance counseling memoranda, previous performance improvement plans, etc., must be submitted through administrative channels through the VP for HR/IE to the President.

An employee may be suspended with pay pending an investigation directed by the President into alleged misconduct or improper performance of duties for up to ninety (90) days. All efforts will be made to resolve the matter within 90 days. However, the College reserves the right to extend the suspension period with pay to complete the full and impartial inquiry. If no action is instituted against the employee as a result of the inquiry, the employee will be reinstated.

VI-5.3 Probation, Suspension or Termination

This procedure applies to any individual employed under the terms of a written contract of employment, signed by a duly authorized representative of FTCC, providing a fixed term of employment. Such individuals are normally at compensation grade 30 or above and are not required submit timesheets and as such are termed "contract" employees. Contract employees may serve in either a full-time or part-time capacity in an academic or administrative position and are normally classified as exempt employees.

This procedure will have no application in instances of contract non-renewal or reduction in force of employees, whether part-time or full-time, and those employees having no written contract of employment and that are required to maintain timesheets and usually classified as non-exempt employees. There is no tenure system at Fayetteville Technical Community College; however, any contract employee who presents a prima facie case that his or her Constitutional rights have been violated in non-reappointment has the right to the appeal procedures as specified.

Fayetteville Technical Community College ("FTCC") provides to contract employees, as defined below, the right to an appeal hearing to review their dismissal. This provision is not applicable to non-contract employees that maintain and submit timesheets for work performed on behalf of the College.

VI-5.3.1 Grounds for Probation, Suspension, or Termination:

A contract employee may be placed on probation, suspension, with or without pay, or terminated for cause relating to personal conduct or improper performance of duties. Such causes include, but are not limited to: incompetence, neglect of duty, conduct unbecoming of an FTCC employee, the commission of an act involving moral turpitude, including sexual harassment/violence or related Title IX misconduct, abandonment of employment, and insubordination. A contract employee may be placed on probation with conditions to include, but not limited to: contracts for a limited duration, disqualification for salary increases or other appropriate conditions. There is no right to appeal a probation decision.

VI-5.3.1.1 Notice of Proposed Suspension or Termination

An employee working pursuant to a written contract will be notified in writing of the proposed suspension or termination by the VP for HR/IE. Such notice will clearly state the reason(s) for the proposed suspension or termination, the effective date of the proposed action, the time and place where the contract employee may review any material relied upon in making the proposal, and afford the contract employee a reasonable opportunity to respond orally or in writing to the proposal, before a final decision is made by the President.

VI-5.3.1.2 Notice and Request for Hearing

A contract employee will be given notice of the decision to suspend or terminate him or her as soon as practicable after the decision has been made by the President. The contract employee may request a hearing to review the decision made by the President. The request shall be made to the President within ten (10) working days of receipt of the notice of the decision. The request will specify the grounds upon which the contract employee contends the suspension or termination is improper. If an appeal to the President is successful, the contract employee will be reinstated and all benefits of employment will be reinstated.

VI-5.3.1.3 Hearing

If an employee is not satisfied with the President's decision, they may request a hearing before an Adhoc Committee.

- (1) The Adhoc Committee, appointed by the President, will conduct the hearing. The President may appoint any member of the faculty or staff to serve as a member of the Adhoc Committee, except those who have been directly involved with the recommendation or consideration.
- (2) The hearing shall be held within ten (10) working days of receipt of the request.
- (3) The hearing will be closed to the public. All parties have the right to counsel, at their own expense, to present witnesses and documents in support of their claims, to cross-examine witnesses and to examine all documents and evidence introduced at the hearing. A recording of the hearing will be made, and a copy provided to the employee, upon request, at FTCC's expense. The conduct of the hearing will be under the control of the designated Chair of the Adhoc Committee.

VI-5.3.1.4 Recommendation of the Adhoc Committee

Within five (5) working days after the hearing, the Adhoc Committee shall make a written recommendation to the President as to the proper disposition. Such recommendation will include appropriate findings of fact and conclusions of the Committee.

VI-5.3.1.5 Decision of the President

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Committee's recommendation, the President shall accept, reject, or modify the Committee's recommendation.

VI-5.3.1.6 Appeal to the Board of Trustees

Following the President's action on the Adhoc Committee's recommendation, a contract employee may file a written appeal within ten (10) calendar days to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may review the matter in full, or may delegate the duty to review such appeal to an ad hoc committee of at least three (3) Trustees. The Board of Trustees will consider the evidence previously assembled including the information adduced at the hearing, the Committee's recommendation, the decision of the President, information in the appeal, and any other relevant evidence. The contract employee has no right to appear and present additional testimony or evidence in person to the Board or any committee thereof. Should the Board of Trustees need clarification, the Board may obtain in-person testimony from the appropriate parties. However, if in-person testimony is received by the Board of Trustees, the appealing employee shall have a right to provide oral testimony. The Board of Trustees will render a final decision on the matter within forty-five (45) calendar days of receipt of the contract employee's appeal. No additional administrative remedy shall be granted after a decision is made by the Board or its Adhoc Committee.

VI-6 POLITICAL ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES

VI-6.1 Definitions

The following terms have the meanings indicated:

- (1) "Employee" means instructional faculty and administrative faculty and staff, general staff and persons employed by FTCC at the pleasure of the Board or on other short-term contracts, including the President.
- (2) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of Fayetteville Technical Community College.
- (3) "FTCC" means Fayetteville Technical Community College.
- (4) "Public Office" means any national, state or local governmental position of public trust and responsibility, whether elective or appointive, which is created or prescribed or recognized by Constitution, statute or ordinance. Membership in the General Assembly of North Carolina will constitute a full-time public office under this definition.
- (5) Use of the masculine gender in this policy will be construed to include the feminine and neuter genders.

VI-6.2 Policy

It is the policy of the Trustees of FTCC that each FTCC employee will retain all rights and obligations of citizenship provided in the U.S. Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The Board encourages employees of FTCC to exercise their rights and obligations of citizenship; however, the campaigning for public office, holding part-time or full-time public office, or office in the General Assembly, or soliciting support for political candidates and activities during regular work hours may not only interfere with the responsibilities of employees to FTCC but also derogate from the responsibility to provide the best possible education to its students. It is, therefore, in an attempt to define reasonable constraints for such employees engaging or proposing to engage in such political activities that this policy is formulated.

NOTE: The requirements of this policy will apply prospectively only. No change in the employment status of an employee who was an incumbent in public office on the effective date of this policy will be required under this policy for the remainder of his or her term of office; provided, however, that this policy will not apply to any employee of FTCC who was a full-time public officer on the effective date of this policy.

VI-6.3 Procedures

- (1) Wherever, under this policy, an employee other than the President is required to notify the Board. Such notification will be sent to the Board through the President of FTCC.
- (2) Any employee who is elected or appointed to a full-time public office or the General Assembly will be required to take a leave of absence without pay upon assuming the office. The length of the leave of absence will be determined by the Board.
- (3) Any employee who becomes a candidate for public office will be prohibited from soliciting support during his or her regular work hours either on or off the College property unless otherwise authorized by the Board. The Board will grant no general authorizations, but will act on individual requests.
- (4) The Board will notify the State Board of Community Colleges if the President of FTCC should become a candidate for, is elected or appointed to, public office.

VI-7 REDUCTION IN FORCE AND FURLOUGH POLICY

VI-7.1 Intent of the Board of Trustees

It is the intent of the Trustees of Fayetteville Technical Community College to avoid, through prudent budgeting and fiscal constraint, any financial crisis that would require the College to reduce the number of persons employed by the College through implementation of this Reduction in Force Policy. However, the Trustees reserve the right for itself to implement this policy in order to ensure the college's ability to fulfill its mission to the fullest extent possible during a financial crisis. Whenever it is necessary to implement this policy, the implementation will be accomplished without regard to race, color, nationality, religion, age, sex, disability, or political affiliation of any employee.

VI-7.1.1 Declaration of a Financial Crisis

If the President of the College, in consultation with the Senior Vice President for Business and Finance, determines the existence of a financial crisis, the President shall report the crisis to the Board of Trustees. Upon its receipt of the President's notice, the Board of Trustees may authorize the implementation of a reduction in force as provided in VI-7.1.2 below.

This Reduction in Force Policy shall not apply to:

- a. Any former employee of the College whose contract of employment has expired and which employee is no longer working for the College in a paid position requiring more than 30 hours per week.
- b. Any part-time employee working less than 30 hours per week, or
- c. Any employee whose position is funded through a grant or special appropriation.

VI-7.1.2 Reduction in Force

Upon the Trustee's authorization of a Reduction in Force the President shall be authorized to eliminate any positions(s) of the College and immediately sever the employment of any person(s) employed in such position(s). In the event a valid contract exists between the College and an employee whose employment with the College is severed pursuant to this policy, the contract shall be immediately terminated and both the College and employee shall be relieved from further obligations under the contract except the College shall pay the employee for any services already rendered pursuant to the contract and any benefits provided pursuant to this Reduction in Force policy.

VI-7.1.3 Notice of Termination to Individual Employees

The President shall provide written notice to the employee(s) whose employment is being severed pursuant to this policy. The notice shall either be hand delivered to the employee(s) or delivered by registered or certified mail. If hand delivered, the employee shall be given opportunity to remove their personal belongings from their work station at that time. If the notice is delivered by registered or certified mail, the employee(s) shall schedule an appointment with their supervisor to remove their personal belongings from their work station. Decisions to terminate employment pursuant to these provisions will not be the result of discriminatory action against an employee based upon his/her race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age or political affiliation.

VI-7.1.4 Employee Rights upon Termination

- a. Severance Pay: Salaried employees terminated pursuant to these provisions shall receive severance pay in an amount equal to one month's salary. Employees paid per hour worked shall receive severance pay equal to their hourly wage multiplied by 173.33 hours. Any terminated employee who has a negative leave balance at the time of termination shall have their severance pay reduced in an amount that fully compensates the College for the negative leave balance.
- b. Payout of Vacation and Bonus Leave: Employees terminated pursuant to these provisions shall receive a lump sum payment of their accumulated vacation leave up to a maximum of 240 hours and any accumulated bonus leave balances as of the date of termination. Any vacation leave by an employee in excess of 240 hours shall be converted to sick leave. The College shall not pay the employee for any accumulated sick leave.
- c. Health Care Coverage: To the extent required by law, and only to such extent, the College shall continue to make its contribution to the State Health Plan on behalf of the terminated employee.
- d. Right of First Refusal: For one year after the effective date of a termination pursuant to these provisions, the President will not fill a position vacated by an employee terminated pursuant to this policy without first offering that position to the terminated employee.

Reduction in Force and Furlough Policy (Continued)

The offer of reemployment will be made by registered or certified mail, to the employee's last known address, and the employee must accept the offer of employment in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date the offer was mailed by the College. Failure to respond within the provided fifteen (15) calendar days shall be deemed a rejection of the offer of employment and any and all rights to reemployment shall expire. Employees shall notify the Human Resources Office of changes in address during the one year period following the employee's termination pursuant to this policy. Certified mail returned as non-deliverable will be considered as providing notice to the former employee.

VI-7.1.5 Review of Individual Terminations

Employees are not entitled to an administrative review of any termination made pursuant to this Reduction in Force Policy. However, any employee who is terminated pursuant to this policy may request a review of the action if he/she believes the termination was the result of discriminatory action against the employee based upon his/her race, national origin, color, religion, gender disability, age, or political affiliation. The employee must request the review of the action in writing and addressed to the President. It must specify the grounds on which it is contended that the decision was the result of discriminatory action against the employee based upon his/her race, national origin, color, religion, gender disability, age, or political affiliation. It must include a short, plain statement of facts that the employee believes support the contention. Upon receipt of the request, a thorough review will be conducted by one or more designees of the President. If it is determined that the termination was based on some illegal discrimination, the employee shall be reinstated and compensated for lost wages. If it is determined that no illegal discrimination occurred, the employee may appeal that decision to the Board of Trustees as described in the FTCC Employment and Affirmative Action Manual, Section VI-7.4.1.6.

VI-7.2 Furloughs

In the event that the College is lawfully required to furlough any or all of its employees, the Board of Trustees may authorize the President to unilaterally alter the terms and/or conditions of the employment of any College employee. If the employee has an employment contract with the College, the President is authorized to unilaterally amend the contract and such unilateral amendment shall be binding on both the College and employee upon five days written notice to the employee. The authorization to unilaterally alter the terms and/or conditions of employment and the employment contract, if any, includes but is not limited to the authorization to furlough an employee, the authorization to reduce the compensation owed to the employee, and the authorization to reduce or eliminate any employee benefit when the benefit is not required by law.

VI-8 EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

VI-8.1 Definition

Grievance: FTCC expects employees to work together collegially and with mutual respect. Occasionally, differences of opinion may occur. Minor differences are to be resolved at the lowest level possible. The grievance process is designed to resolve matters that are severe, pervasive and impedes the employee's ability to satisfactorily perform his/her duties. The grievance process is not designed for claims concerning a performance counseling, performance improvement plan, performance appraisal evaluation, probation, suspension, termination or allegations of illegal discrimination to include sexual harassment/violence. However, claims concerning a probation, suspension or termination will be considered under provisions of VI-5 Discipline and Involuntary Termination. Should an employee allege illegal discrimination, to include sexual harassment/violence as defined by Section VI-1 of this manual, the employee must present the grievance directly to the VP for HR/IE, who is designated as the College's Title IX Coordinator. Should the VP for HR/IE or a member of his/her staff be a party to the claim, the allegations will be presented to the VP for Administrative Services to investigate the Title IX allegation.

VI-8.2 Policy

Fayetteville Technical Community College ("FTCC") encourages the prompt and fair resolution of grievances. An employee may present a grievance without fear of coercion, restraint, interference, penalty, or reprisal.

VI-8.3 Procedure:

(This procedure applies to all employees of FTCC.)

Step 1: Employees shall attempt resolution of their grievance(s) by first discussing the concerns directly with the party (parties) involved because the other party may not even be aware of the concern. This discussion should be scheduled as soon as possible and within 15 calendar days of the incident(s) giving rise to the grievance or concern allowing for a timely resolution at the lowest possible level.

Step 2: If the employee is not satisfied with Step 1 decision, the employee must present their written grievance or concern to their immediate supervisor within thirty (30) calendar days of the incident giving rise to the grievance. Should the grievance or concern be against their immediate supervisor, the employee must present the written grievance to the supervisor's immediate supervisor. The employee and their supervisor(s) will meet within three (3) working days following the presentation of the grievance to discuss the grievance concerns, and to attempt informal resolution. The supervisor(s) will provide a written decision on the informal grievance not later than ten (10) working days following this meeting. Except in cases of illegal discrimination, including sexual harassment/violence, employees must use their supervisory chain to attempt resolution at the lowest level possible.

Step 3: If the employee is not satisfied with Step 2 decision, the employee may, within five (5) working days, submit an appeal to the former resolution decision in writing to the next level of supervision within the table of organization of FTCC. The employee shall attach the step 2 written complaint and the supervisor's written response to the Step 2 appeal and specifically address what portions of the previous resolution is being appealed for further consideration and reasons for the Step 3 appeal. If the next level of supervision determines that a meeting is necessary to discuss the grievance, notification of such meeting will be given to the employee and any other appropriate personnel. Such meeting will be held as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance. Following the meeting, the supervisor will render a written decision as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within five (5) working days. If the supervisor can render a fair and impartial decision without a meeting, basing their decision on a review of the documentation submitted, the supervisor will render a written decision as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance. This decision may be provided to the appellant either by U.S. Postal Mail or via FTCC email and a copy of such notification will be retained in the supervisor's office.

Step 4: If the employee is not satisfied with Step 3 decision, the employee may, within five (5) working days of their receipt of the Step 3 decision, submit an appeal of the former resolution decision in writing to the appropriate Senior Vice President or Vice President within the table of organization of FTCC. The employee shall attach the step 2 and 3 written complaints/appeals and the supervisor's written responses to the Step 2 and 3 appeals and specifically address what portions of the previous responses are being submitted for further consideration with reasons supporting a Step 4 appeal. If the (Senior) Vice President determines that a meeting to discuss the grievance is appropriate, notification of such meeting will be given to the employee and any other appropriate personnel. Such meeting will be held as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance. Following the meeting, the (Senior) Vice President will render a written decision as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within five (5) working days. Should the (Senior) Vice President feel they can make a fair and impartial decision without a meeting, basing their decision on the appeal by review of the documentation submitted in the appeal packet, and/or from discussions with the supervisory chain, the (Senior) Vice President will render a written decision as soon as reasonably possible but in most circumstances within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance. This decision may be provided to the

VI-9.3.3 Filing a Complaint

Complaints in violation of the Board of Trustee's non-discrimination policy should be directed to the Office of the Vice President for Human Resources and Institutional Effectiveness (VP of HR/IE). Those wishing to report a violation under the non-discrimination policy are encouraged, but not required, to do so by completing and submitting a Discrimination/Harassment Complaint Form D-3 (available in the fill-in forms) to the Personnel Manager (Deputy Title IX Coordinator) with a copy to the VP for HR/IE (Title IX Coordinator).

Those wishing to submit their complaint in person should do so by contacting the VP of HR/IE or the Personnel Manager at 910-678-8246 and/or report to either Room 162 in the Thomas R. McLean Administration Building on the Fayetteville Campus.

VI-9.3.4 Complaint Inquiry or Investigation Steps

An individual who believes that he or she has been subjected to Illegal Discrimination, including Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault/Violence, in violation of the College's non-discrimination policy and the alleged offender must freely, openly, and honestly confer with the Title IX Coordinators and/or Title IX Investigators and cooperate with his or her efforts to determine the facts and circumstances leading to the complaint, to enable the Title IX Coordinators and/or Investigators to make a reasonable determination as to the merits of the complaint, and to reach, if possible, an informal resolution. If an informal resolution cannot be reached, the Title IX Coordinators will in collaboration with the Director of Public Safety and Security assign responsibility for the conduct a formal inquiry or investigation.

Decisions resulting from any inquiry or investigation shall be made by the Title IX Coordinators using the Preponderance of the Evidence standard defined above. The normal resolution steps are listed below.

Step 1: Initial meeting with the Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Coordinator, and/or Director or Captain of Public Safety and Security and the person(s) wishing to file a complaint. Information will be gathered during this meeting and immediately provided to the Deputy Title IX Coordinator who will develop a case file. Following that initial meeting, the Personnel Manager will provide such information to the Title IX Coordinator and provide details surrounding the complaint. The Title IX Coordinator will, after reviewing the case file, hearing the details of the complaint from the Personnel Manager, and/or hearing directly from the person(s) filing the complaint will in collaboration with the Director of Public Safety and Security determine the most appropriate entity to conduct an investigation, including holding separate meetings of the parties of the complaint gathering evidence upon which the Title IX Coordinator will use to make an informal resolution decision that includes possible remedies and/or sanctions. Both the party(ies) making the complaint and the person(s) which were identified as possible violators of College policy will be advised of the informal decision and all remedies and sanctions associated with the decision. All meetings to gather additional evidence, if needed after the investigation is conducted, that may be necessary for the Title IX Coordinators to make an informal decision will be attended by the Personnel Manager, who will be authorized to actively participate in any of the fact-finding discussions. The Personnel Manager will also take minutes of the meeting. At the conclusion of the above meetings the Title IX Coordinator(s) will render his/her decision and provide such decision to the parties of the complaint. The initial investigation, subsequent fact-finding meetings and decision by the Title IX Coordinators will normally be completed with five (5) working days of the initial meeting with the Title IX Coordinators and/or Director (or Captain) of Public Safety and Security. If all parties to the complaint are satisfied with the informal decision and associated remedies/sanctions, the inquiry will be closed. If either party is not satisfied, the Title IX Coordinator(s) will determine the level of formal inquiry or investigation that is appropriate to the details of the complaint. Normally, the formal investigation will be assigned to the Director (or Captain) of Public Safety and Security with investigation reports being hand carried to the Title IX Coordinators upon completion of the investigation.

Both the victim(s) and offender(s) shall be given an equal opportunity to present information to the Title IX Investigators and/or Coordinators during informal inquiries, formal investigations or fact-finding conferences at the various levels of inquiry or investigation. Both parties may invite other individuals to accompany them to any meetings, conferences, hearing, or appeals which may be held. The accompanying individuals shall not be permitted to represent the alleged victim(s) or alleged offender(s), but will be permitted to confer with the alleged victim(s) or alleged offender(s) so long as such is conducted in a manner so as not to disrupt the meeting, hearing, inquiry, investigation, or appeal.

Illegal Discrimination and Sexual Harassment/Violence Prevention Policy

Step 2: If an agreeable informal resolution cannot be reached from the above actions, the Title IX Coordinator will assign responsibility for the conduct of further inquiries and investigations, within ten (10) additional working days, as necessary to determine a formal proposed remedy (ies) or resolution(s). Normally, such investigation assignment will be to the Director (or Captain) of Public Safety and Security. If the offender is a member of the faculty or staff, the formal proposed resolution by the Title IX Coordinators shall be shared with the Vice President in the member's chain of command. After sharing such information with the appropriate Senior VP or VP, the Title IX Coordinator and the Deputy Coordinator shall render a final formal decision on the matter and impose remedies and/or sanctions as permitted by the Employment and Affirmative Action Manual and the Academic Procedures Manual. In the event the offender is not a faculty, staff, student, vendor, or contractor of the College, the College may bar the offender from FTCC property and notify the offender of the restriction using a second degree trespass notice issued by the Public Safety and Security Office.

Step 3: Should a party wish to appeal the formal decision of the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Coordinator, either party may prepare and submit a written appeal to the appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President) requesting reconsideration of the previous decision. The appeal/reconsideration of decision request must be presented in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Step 1 determination. The appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President) will render a decision on the reconsideration appeal within ten (10) working days following receipt of such appeal/reconsideration.

If either party is dissatisfied with the Senior Vice President's (or Vice President's) final resolution decision, he/she may submit a written appeal, within 10 days of their notification of the decision. The appeal should be addressed to the College President requesting reconsideration of both the Title IX Coordinator(s) findings and the appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President's) finding(s). The President may consider the evidence adduced during the previous inquiries and/or investigations, the Title IX Coordinator's recommendations, the decision(s) of the Senior Vice President (Vice President), and any other relevant evidence. The appellant may be asked to appear and present additional testimony or evidence in person to the President (at his/her discretion). Should the President seek additional information from any party, all parties shall have a right to provide oral testimony. The President will render a final decision on the matter within 20 days of receipt of the appeal. No additional administrative remedy shall be granted after a decision is made by the President.

Miscellaneous Information: In compliance with Title IX requirements, the following additional information is provided related to filing of complaints:

- FTCC shall retain jurisdiction over Title IX complaints and subsequent inquiries and/or investigations. The evidentiary standard used during inquiries or investigations following a complaint shall be Preponderance of the Evidence.
- Victims may file confidential reports. The College will make all reasonable efforts to ensure confidentiality. However, if a report is made confidentially or anonymously, the ability of the College to fully explore the complaint may be substantially limited. While assuring rights and due processes of all parties involved in the complaint, FTCC shall attempt to make resolutions with limited access to reported information. The College's Title IX Coordinator (and/or the Deputy Coordinator) will determine the degree of confidentiality that can be allowed based upon the circumstances in the reported action. In situations where absolute confidentiality cannot be maintained to ensure due process of all parties of the complaint, each person given access to the information will be informed that retaliation is prohibited under Title IX.
- Those filing complaints under this procedure may also file a criminal complaint and a Title IX complaint simultaneously (at the discretion of the person making the complaint). Alleged victims shall be notified of this right by either the Title IX Coordinators or Director/Captain of Public Safety and Security at the time of the initial discussion and filing of the allegation/complaint.
- Interim measures approved the Title IX Coordinators may be taken to protect the person making the complaint and the person(s) against whom the complaint was made, including such actions as referrals to appropriate agencies who can provide support, misconduct counseling, victim counseling, performance improvement plans, changing course and/or work schedules of one or more of the parties to the complaint.
- Final remedies and/or sanctions include but are not limited to: Referrals to counseling, advocacy, and support agencies such as the Employee/Student Assistance Program coordinated on behalf of the student by either the Title IX Coordinators or the Director/Captain of PSASO, security escorts while on college properties, counseling, formal Performance Improvement Plans, probation with or without pay, immediate mandatory separation of the parties to the complaint, changing of course/work schedules, temporary or permanent suspensions, termination, or expulsions of those where the preponderance of the evidence indicates misconduct has likely occurred.

VI-10.3.1 Grievance Procedures and Appeals (students):

Decisions resulting from any complaint investigation shall be made using the Preponderance of the Evidence standard using the following steps:

Step 1: Conference meeting with the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinator, and the Title IX Investigators (Director/Captain of Public Safety and Security) may also attended by the Personnel Manager, who will actively participate in the inquiry or investigation and take minutes of the conference session. If the complaint is filed with the Public Safety and Security Office (PSASO), the Personnel Manager may not be available and the PSASO will ensure an alternative method of the taking of minutes is used to document discussions. An individual who believes that he or she has been subjected to Illegal Discrimination, including Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault/Violence, in violation of the College's non-discrimination policy and the alleged offender must confer with the Title IX Coordinators or the Director/Captain of the PSASO and cooperate with his or her efforts to determine facts and circumstances leading to the complaint, to enable the Title IX Coordinators/Investigators to make a reasonable determination as to the merits of the complaint, and to reach, if possible, an informal resolution that is approved by the Title IX Coordinator(s). Both the victim and offender shall be given an equal opportunity to present information to the Title IX Investigators and/or Coordinators and both may invite another individual to accompany them to any meeting, hearing, or appeal which may be held. The accompanying individual shall not be permitted to represent the alleged victim or alleged offender, but will be permitted to confer with the alleged victim or alleged offender so long as such is conducted in a manner so as not to disrupt the meeting, hearing, inquiry, investigation, or appeal. Every attempt will be made to determine an informed resolution. If such informed resolution is made and agreed to by both parties, the case will be closed.

If an agreeable informal resolution cannot be reached, the Title IX Coordinator(s) will assign responsibility to a Title IX Investigator to conduct further inquiries and investigations, within ten (10) additional working days, as necessary to determine the formal proposed remedy(ies) or resolution(s). If the offender is a member of the faculty or staff, the formal proposed resolution shall be shared with the Senior Vice President or Vice President in the member's chain of command. The Title IX Coordinator and the Deputy Coordinator shall personally render a final formal decision on the matter considering all information gathered by the Title IX Investigators, including the initial complaint, witness statements and related documentation and impose sanctions as permitted by the Employment and Affirmative Action Manual and the Academic Procedures Manual. In the event the offender is not a faculty, staff, student, vendor, or contractor of the College, the College may bar the offender from FTCC property and notify the offender of the restriction using a second degree trespass notice issued by the PSASO.

Step 2: Should a party wish to appeal the formal decision of the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Coordinator, either party may prepare and submit a written appeal to the appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President) requesting reconsideration of the previous decision. The appeal/reconsideration of decision request must be presented in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Step 1 decision. The appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President) will render an appeal decision based on their reconsideration of the information and further inquiry into the matter within ten (10) working days following their initial receipt of such appeal/reconsideration.

Step 3: If either party is dissatisfied with the Senior Vice President's (or Vice President's) final resolution decision, he/she may submit a written appeal, within 10 days of their notification of the decision. The appeal should be addressed to the College President requesting reconsideration of both the Title IX Coordinator(s) findings and the appropriate Senior Vice President (or Vice President's) finding(s). The President may consider the evidence adduced during the previous inquiries and/or investigations, the Title IX Coordinator's recommendations, the decision(s) of the Senior Vice President (Vice President), and any other relevant evidence. The appellant may be asked to appear and present additional testimony or evidence in person to the President (at his/her discretion). Should the President seek additional information from any party, all parties shall have a right to provide oral testimony. The President will render a final decision on the matter within 20 days of receipt of the appeal. No additional administrative remedy shall be granted after a decision is made by the President.

of the Evidence. Normally, Title IX investigations will be assigned to the Director (or Captain) of Public Safety and Security with the final completed investigation report being hand carried to the Title IX Coordinators for a decision using the preponderance of evidence standard.

- Victims may file confidential reports and the College, will make all reasonable efforts to ensure confidentiality. However, if a report is made confidentially or anonymously, the ability of the College to fully explore the complaint may be substantially limited. While assuring rights and due processes of all parties involved in the complaint, FTCC shall attempt to make resolutions with limited access to reported information. The College's Title IX Coordinator (and/or the Deputy Coordinator) will determine the degree of confidentiality that can be allowed based upon the circumstances in the reported action. In situations where absolute confidentiality cannot be maintained to ensure due process of all parties of the complaint, each person given access to the information will be informed that retaliation is prohibited under Title IX.
- Those filing complaints under this procedure may also file a criminal complaint and a Title IX complaint simultaneously (at the discretion of the person making the complaint). Alleged victims shall be notified of this right by the person receiving the initial allegation or complaint.
- Interim measures, approved by the Title IX Coordinators, may be taken to protect the person making the complaint and the person(s) against whom the complaint was made, including such actions as referrals to appropriate agencies who can provide support, misconduct counseling, victim counseling, performance improvement plans, changing course and/or work schedules of one or more of the parties to the complaint.
- Final remedies and/or sanctions that may be included in the Title IX Coordinator(s) decision include but are not limited to: Referrals to counseling, advocacy, and support agencies such as the Employee/Student Assistance Program coordinated on behalf of the student by either the Title IX Coordinators or the Director/Captain of PSASO, security escorts while on college properties, counseling, formal Performance Improvement Plans, immediate mandatory separation of the parties to the complaint, changing of course/work schedules, temporary or permanent suspensions, termination, or expulsions of those where the preponderance of the evidence indicates misconduct has likely occurred.

VI-11 PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL PROCEDURES

VI-11.1 Purpose

To ensure quality performance, retain qualified employees and facilitate the communication of expectations between supervisors and employees, job performance is reviewed regularly for all employees.

VI-11.2 Professional Development

Professional development is essential for all faculty and staff to grow and increase effectiveness in performance of their jobs. In keeping with this philosophy, full-time faculty are required to complete 30 hours of professional development annually, and full-time staff are required to complete 12 hours of professional development annually. Part-time faculty and staff are encouraged to attend professional development sessions as their work schedules permit. The College offers online professional development opportunities for those who work at distant locations or have schedule conflicts preventing attendance at face-to-face sessions. Attendance and/or credit for any professional development session is approved/disapproved by the immediate supervisor. Employees are responsible for tracking his/her own professional development hours using the Employee Professional Development Form P-14. The supervisor and the employee should review the Form P-14 during the closeout of the performance appraisal and attach it to the Employee Performance Appraisal Form E-32. Professional development activities are defined as:

- Attending professional development sessions sponsored by the College
- Preparing and presenting professional development sessions at the College
- Continuing education related to one's career field
- Pursuing advanced degrees that support the mission of the College
- Attending any training related to their career field
- Attending or presenting at conferences, seminars, webinars, and workshops
- Holding memberships and/or offices in professional/academic organizations
- Preparing articles and/or books

VI-11.3 Procedure

1. An Employee Performance Appraisal form (Form E-32) will be completed for each full-time employee once a year.
2. At the beginning of each annual review period, the employee and their supervisor must conduct an initial conference for the purpose of reviewing the employee's job description, establishing individual performance objectives and identifying critical performance dimensions. The supervisor will consider the employee's input in the process. Responsibility for identifying individual performance objectives and critical performance dimensions remains with the supervisor.

- a. The job description should be updated, as needed, by the supervisor with input from the employee. The appropriate senior administrator reviews and approves the updated job description and Human Resources receive the approved job description for any further review and for updating the records of the college.
 - b. The supervisor, with input from the employee, will establish individual performance objectives for the employee.
 1. Three or more objectives will be established.
 2. One objective may be directed toward personal growth and/or individual work assignments.
 3. All should support College initiatives and institutional goals.
 - c. The employee and supervisor will also review the performance attributes and dimensions found in the Employment and Affirmative Action Manual, VI-11.5: Definitions for Performance Attributes. At the time of the review, the supervisor, with input from the employee, will mark the employability skills and performance attributes that are most critical to the function of that position. In most cases, six or more skills and attributes will be identified and should include supervisor expectations of employee compliance with the timeliness of work, attendance, and punctuality.
3. During the review period:
- a. The employee and supervisor will communicate formally and informally as needed. Supervisors should record, in writing, the topics discussed during such performance discussions as a memo of record.
 - b. The employee and his/her supervisor should review the employee's performance objectives.
4. At the end of the review period, the employee receives an overall assessment on their performance.
- a. The employee may evaluate their own job performance and provide a copy to their supervisor for consideration in the performance appraisal.

- b. Supervisors must complete an Employee Performance Appraisal form (Form E-32) for each of their designated full-time employees.
 - c. Prior to the discussion with the employee, the supervisor's supervisor should be briefed if the employee's overall rating is "Below Expectations".
 - d. The supervisor conducts an appraisal review with the employee. Both the supervisor and the employee sign the form and may write comments.
 - e. Both the employee and the supervisor retain a copy of the completed, signed appraisal.
 - f. The supervisor forwards the completed original signed appraisal form through supervisory channels to the Human Resources office for filing.
5. If a full-time employee changes supervisors and has worked for the supervisor for at least ninety days (90) a performance appraisal will be completed according to the end of the review period procedures (See Item 4).
6. Full-time employees reporting to more than one supervisor should have an Employee Performance Appraisal (Form E-32) completed by each supervisor.
7. Full-time employees who separate from employment with the College will receive an end-of-service written performance appraisal if more than ninety days (90) have elapsed since their last appraisal.
 - a. The employee's supervisor will make all reasonable attempts to conduct a performance appraisal with the employee prior to the employee's last working day.
 - b. In the event it is not possible for the supervisor to conduct a performance appraisal prior to the employee's last working day, the supervisor will provide a written performance appraisal for inclusion in the employee's personnel file in the Human Resources Office. A copy of the performance appraisal will be mailed to the employee. The employee shall be allowed ten (10) working days to provide a written response to the performance appraisal.
8. Students will evaluate faculty at least once a year. Student evaluations will be taken into account by faculty supervisors when completing the Employee Performance Appraisal (Form E-32). Please refer to the Faculty Handbook and/or Standard Operating Procedures.
9. Supervisors or designees will conduct at least one classroom observation per year using the Faculty Teaching Observation form (Form F-17), per faculty member and include a copy of same with the annual performance appraisal. Classroom observations may be used to document performance appraisal requirements for part-time faculty instructors in lieu of using the full-time appraisal form. Such classroom observations used in lieu of a formal performance appraisal must be sent to HR for inclusion in the part-time instructor's personnel file. Part-time staff should be appraised using the full-time appraisal form (Form E-32).

10. If an employee receives an overall "Below Expectations" rating on their annual performance appraisal, a "Performance Improvement Plan" (PIP) (Form P-24) must be used to document the expected changes needed to improve their performance or behavior. The PIP may also be used any time an employee's performance or behavior fails to meet the supervisor's expectations. Employees on PIP may be considered ineligible for pay raises and/or favorable personnel actions. If the employee does not make the expected performance or behavior improvements within a specified time period, the employee may be disciplined in accordance with policies and procedures of the College.
11. Ninety-days (90) from hire date, a formal written performance appraisal will be conducted near the end of the ninety-day (90) probationary period for all new full-time employees. Supervisors are always responsible for the continuous appraisal of employees' performance, especially during the first year of employment.
12. Supervisors or designees will conduct at least one classroom observation, and at least one students' evaluation of each instructor for all part-time faculty each year.
13. Employees subject to administrative decisions affecting their employment are entitled to due process as outlined in previous sections of the FTCC Employment and Affirmative Action Manual.
14. All appraisals and observations shall be kept confidential.
15. The review period shall begin at the beginning of the fiscal year or at the time employment begins.
16. The review period shall end at the time the supervisor shares the Employee Performance Appraisal with the employee. However, the Employee Performance Appraisal must be received in the Human Resources office no later than the following dates:

May 30 – Contract II Faculty (10-month Faculty)
July 15 – Contact I & III Faculty (12-month Faculty)
July 15 - Staff

Additionally, supervisors may attach an addendum to the appraisal indicating outstanding or substandard performance by an employee during the remainder of the fiscal year. An addendum may be included for ten-month faculty contracted to work beyond the May 30th date.

Appeals to Performance Appraisals

Supervisors are responsible for evaluating the performance of their faculty and staff and therefore such appraisals of performance are normally not subject to an appeal, except if such appeal is based upon allegations of improper consideration of the employee's race, national origin, color, religion, gender, disability, age or political affiliation. Evaluated employees who document such illegal considerations in their appraisal process may file such appeal using the grievance process prescribed in section VI-7.3 of this manual.

VI-11.5 Definitions for Performance Dimensions

Directions: These definitions are to be used with Section 2, Performance Dimensions, of the Employee Performance Appraisal form to determine the critical dimensions and to help assess/describe performance. For more information, see the Employee Performance Appraisal form (see Fill-in forms on IEA website).

VI-12 DISABILITY AND REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION PROCEDURE (INTERACTIVE PROCESS)

Fayetteville Technical Community College (FTCC) is committed to assisting employees (and applicants) with medical impairments and/or disabilities as they seek accommodations when such accommodations can be identified allowing an employee to complete their essential job duties and functions. The College uses an interactive process to encourage ongoing dialogue between FTCC supervisors and the employee (or applicant) as it relates to medically prescribed work restrictions and/or essential job duties of the position. The interactive process is normally facilitated by the Vice President for Human Resources and Institutional Effectiveness (VP for HR/IE) with the following parties participating throughout the interactive process:

1. Employee (or applicant)
2. Senior Vice President or Vice President of the employee seeking accommodation assistance
3. Immediate FTCC Supervisor of the position and/or incumbent
4. FTCC Benefits Specialist
5. Human Resources Staff (for taking of meeting minutes)
6. FTCC Vice President for Legal and Risk Management
7. Other parties at request of employee (or applicant) or Immediate Supervisor

Generally, the employee (or applicant) will notify the Human Resources Personnel Manager of an accommodation need and submit medical documentation supporting the request for accommodation. A College fill-in form (# D-1) entitled "Individual Disability Disclosure" is available for use when requesting an accommodation. Within five (5) working days of receipt of the above disability disclosure and/or request for accommodation, the Office of Human Resources take the following actions:

1. Schedule a meeting of the above parties to begin an open dialogue and discussion of the requested accommodation(s). Notice of date, time and location will be provided to all meeting members.
2. Prepare file folders for each participant that includes copies of the Job Description, Organization Chart, and general information related to the requested accommodation. The VP for HR/IE will determine what items can be shared with meeting attendees prior to the meeting to protect the privacy of the employee's medical condition but yet allow members of the group to have a general understanding of the specific accommodations requested. Generally, medical documentation will not be shared with the interactive process group members unless the employee (or applicant) requests such documents to be shared.

Meeting attendees shall engage in open dialogue to address the specific work restrictions causing a need for accommodation(s) comparing those work restrictions to the essential job functions/duties of the position. The goal of the interactive process is to maintain an open dialogue leading to possible accommodations meeting both the employee's (or applicant's) needs while allowing the incumbent to fulfill their position's essential job duties. If reasonable accommodation(s) are identified preventing an undue hardship to the College or further injury or harm to the employee (or applicant), the accommodations will be implemented as quickly as possible (normally within 2 to 3 working days) following the meeting date. Should the first meeting fail to identify reasonable accommodation(s), a second meeting (normally, convened 2 to 3 working days after the first meeting) will be held with the same parties, and the Senior Vice President or Vice President of the employee (or applicant). The Senior Vice President or Vice President will be allowed to join the interactive process dialogue to assist in identifying possible accommodations. If no reasonable accommodations can be determined during the second meeting, the employee will be asked to discuss his/her work restrictions further with their physician to determine if work restriction modifications are possible and/or alternatively discuss the possibility of employment disability. The employee (or applicant) is encouraged to share their job description, organization chart and minutes of the previous meeting(s) with their physician as part of this ongoing dialogue and pursuit of reasonable accommodations.

If the physician modifies the work restrictions, another interactive process meeting will be scheduled by the College's Personnel Manager. The same parties at previous meetings will be scheduled to attend allowing for continuation of the interactive process.

Goals of the interactive process are to:

1. Engage in timely and open discussions, seeking possible accommodations for medically documented work restrictions allowing for continued completion of essential job duties and functions. In most cases, reasonable accommodations are likely to be identified. However, should such accommodations not be identified, the employee (or applicant) may be requested to revisit their physician seeking further guidance, assistance, and/or consideration of work restriction modifications or disability processing, as deemed appropriate by the physician. Employees are encouraged to share with their physician copies of their job description, organization chart, and minutes of the interactive process meeting(s) which will be provided to the employee upon request.
2. Develop a timeline for implementation of reasonable accommodations identified in step 1 above, preventing further harm or injury to the employee (or applicant) and not creating an undue hardship for the College.
3. To continue such ongoing discussions as the employee's medical condition improves or declines to identify modifications that may be needed over time.

Questions concerning this procedure should be addressed to the Vice President for Human Resources and Institutional Effectiveness.
