BLET INFORMATIONAL WORKSHOPS AND HOW TO APPLY

Attend one of our BLET Informational Workshops to find out what the BLET Academy is all about! There are two (2) parts to the workshop.

- Part one (1) is the informational session
- Part two (2) is the application workshop (where a BLET staff member will assist you through the application process)

You can attend information only if you would like or you can attend both. If you attend both parts of the workshop you will have completed more than half of the application process by the time you leave that day!

There are two (2) ways to sign up for our BLET Informational Workshops.

#1 Go to our Facebook page at “FTCC Basic Law Enforcement Training” and click on the “Sign Up” button on our cover photo. Fill out all required information, and then choose the workshop of your choice. Make sure to print out the application packet from home when you sign up for the workshop and bring it with you to the workshop.

#2 Go to our website at: www.faytechcc.edu and search the “BLET” page. Click on the “How to Enroll” tab then click on link “Request an Academy Application Packet”. Fill out all required information, and then choose the workshop of your choice. Make sure to print out the application packet from home when you sign up for the workshop and bring it with you to the workshop.

NOTE: If you would like to complete the BLET application packet on your own, without attending a workshop, no problem, just choose the “none” option for the workshop part. Download the application packet from home and complete the checklist of things to do.
